

School Show Parking Guide

School Bus Parking

A special zone just for school bus parking is provided immediately adjacent to the Oxford Performing Arts Center on Dewey Street. Oxford Police officers will be directing traffic on the day of the performances. Buses should enter the school bus zone from Snow Street. Officers will direct bus drivers to park in rows allowing for easy access for students and teachers to access the venue. During the show, bus drivers are welcome to watch the show with the students if desired. For more information on bus parking and unloading, please call 256-241-3322.

Parent & Home School Group Parking

Chaperones, parents, home school groups, and church groups are invited to park across Choccolocco Street from the main entrance to the Oxford Performing Arts Center. Parking is free for all performances!

We kindly request that the lots marked in yellow on the map below be left open for marked yellow school buses. Vans and small (non-school) buses may park in the main lot.
